Christmas gift ideas from St Hywyn's bookshop Aberdaron

Glass Christmas stars to hang in the window or on the tree, specially commissioned by Anne Smith Glass Studio of Rhiw.

A Llyn Anthology : a book in which everyone can find something of interest. A selection of stories, letters, poems and illustrations in short chapters to dip in and out of over the Christmas holiday. The church shop is open every day 10am-4pm (cash or cheques).

A GIFT TO BRO ENLLI

It has now been three years since we re-opened the medieval shrine of Mair Morwyn Y Mor, Our lady of Pen Llyn in Pwllheli. We have celebrated special services of the seven sorrows of Mary that connect the shrine to the Holy Well on Uwchmynydd at the other end of our ministry area and pilgrims have received sprinkling from those holy waters.

We have also seen pilgrims coming to sit in the shrine on quiet occasions and to seek solace, healing and peace. One such pilgrim came, suffering from terminal cancer.

She did not ask for healing but for the strength to accept her death and find peace.

This she received and in thanksgiving organised a gift to the shrine upon her death, a piece of the veil worn by the Blessed Virgin Mary at the foot of the cross.

The veil had been transferred in the early years of Christianity from Jerusalem to Constantinople when it was presented by the Byzantine Empress Irene to the Holy Roman Emperor Charlemagne. In 876 AD his descendant Charles the Bald gave the relic to the cathedral at Chartres where it is kept to this day in a golden reliquary beside the high altar. The veil itself is more than six metres long and made of silk. Scientific studies have shown

It is of Syrian design, fine quality and dates to the time of Christ. The piece we have been given was removed

From the full veil in 1829 and sealed with Spanish wax bearing the imprint of the coat of arms of Father

Giuseppe Mancini, Archbishop of Sienna into a beautiful silver baroque monstrance. The accompanying document of authenticity is also signed by Father Mancini. The veil has been seen by Christians throughout the centuries as a symbol of Mary's continuing care and protection for God's children and gives hope to all who face difficult times as we contemplate the sorrows Mary endured in faith as she awaited the consolation and joy of the resurrection.

We are now looking at plans as to how we can house this important relic, the only one of its kind in Wales, so that it can be on permanent display for pilgrims to come and seek Mary's prayers.

In the meantime, we plan to hold a Mass of Celebration for this wonderful gift at 2pm on Saturday 19th

January in St Peter's, Pwllheli, to which all are welcome. Fr Huw Bryant

Invitation from Revd Janet

In the New Year I'll be running a course for any who would like to learn more about the worship in our churches, particularly for those who may feel called to lead non-Eucharistic / Prayer services and so be commissioned into this Ministry. I'll also be interested to hear from anyone in the Ministry area who feels they would like to serve at the altar or lead prayers of intercession and I'll either include this in the worship leaders course or we can meet together at a different time. To find out more, or if you feel interested in any of the above call Janet on 760587 or email revjletcher@btinternet.com

More details of times and places will follow when I know how many people wish to attend.
