"Thank You" to our 'Swallows'

Never underestimate the love that our regular summer visitors – our 'swallows' who fly in every year, have for our churches here in Bro Enlli.

Caroline Middleton has been coming every year to St Hywyn's for all of her 30+ years. She loves it so much, her friend made her a birthday cake model of it.

Once again we have had a busy summer in Bro Enlli with many social events and fund-raising opportunities. I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for your hard work in organising and supporting our many events.

“The Recovery of Joy” Naomi’s latest book.

Monday 25th 6pm launch at Llanbedrog Church with Bishop Andy John. A story of a journey across the sea and islands, with reflections on the Psalms, that moves the narrator from rootlessness, through healing to a rediscovery of joy. Signed copies will be on sale! Refreshments.

Harvest Offerings for the Pwllheli Foodbank Please

We’ve had a mini-spike in numbers over the summer due to free school meals not being available and as the kids return to school some parents struggle to buy uniforms and school supplies.

248 packs were given out this year up to the end of July, 116 family packs, 131 to singles/couples.

As usual we are stockpiling items ready for the winter as we see numbers rise from October onwards when the caravan parks close and seasonal work ends and the cold weather hits; Driving up electricity bills.

Please offer non-perishable foods at your church’s Diolchgarwch/ Harvest Festival to support the food bank. A list of foods that are needed, are in the enclosed leaflet.
